

Plan Review

The University Police Department will continue to coordinate with the University Administration and other essential personnel when updates to the plan are necessary. Recommendations for revisions will be made to the President. The University Police Department will evaluate training exercises and make recommendations for improvements. The Chief of Police will coordinate disaster/major emergency exercises, planning directives and policies from the President's Office and from the Chancellor's Office, and assure that the University plan is correct and functional.